

Dr TAM Mei-fung, May

Part-time lecturer, Vocational Training Council (VTC)

Biography

Dr TAM is a Part-time Lecturer at the VTC. She holds a Bachelor of Engineering with Honours in Materials Engineering, a Master of Science in Engineering Enterprise Management, and a Doctor of Philosophy from Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology (RMIT University). Dr Tam has been working at the VTC for over 15 years. Her teaching experience includes programmes in Mechanical Engineering and Building Services Engineering. She has taught Green Knowledge and Practices and Commissioning and Maintenance in recent semesters.

In addition to her academic work, Dr TAM is passionate about environmental issues, particularly the principles of recycling, reusing, and reducing (3R) in daily life. She has also received certifications as a Social Accountability Auditor and completed SA8000 Training from Bureau Veritas Certification Hong Kong Limited.