We are living in an unprecedented time. Everyone is wondering if living with the COVID-19 virus would be the new normal. A safe, clean and efficient environment inside buildings is a priority for all. In this webinar, we have invited one of the leading elevator companies in Hong Kong to share with us how the lift and escalator industry is using the latest technologies to meet the challenges of COVID-19 and a greater demand for smart operations. The topics to be covered include:

1. Air Button - an innovative touchless solution that reduces the need for lift users to touch the lift buttons;
2. HandSure – an escalator disinfection system inside the escalator truss, which automatically sprays out a 100% natural Nano-antibacterial coating;
3. IoT 24/7 Connected Services – an intelligent service that uses IBM Watson IoT platform to enable lifts and escalators to speak their minds and help minimize unnecessary technician travels in times of COVID-19; and
4. Advanced People Flow Planning – how meticulous planning based on real data can provide segment-specific insights and recommendations for smooth and effortless people flow.
